

Project Title	EducationUSA KAZAKHSTAN Intern
Project Summary	Make your global impact through supporting Kazakhstani students in the application process to U.S. HEIs. The EducationUSA Kazakhstan Intern will engage with students through peer-advising and conducting workshops. This internship will improve cross-cultural, leadership, and communication skills.
Country	Kazakhstan

Project Description

This internship is perfect for students interested in working with a dynamic group of students and supporting the future leaders of Kazakhstan. Interns will develop their cross-cultural, communication, presentation, and leadership skills as they work with the Nur-Sultan (Astana) and Almaty EducationUSA Club students. Also, interns will gain practical experience in international student advising.

EducationUSA is a U.S. Department of State network of advising centers in over 175 countries. Advising centers in Kazakhstan provide prospective applicants to U.S. colleges and universities with accurate, comprehensive, and timely information on opportunities to experience U.S. higher education. Interns selected for the project will work under the supervision of the EducationUSA centers in Nur-Sultan and Almaty.

EducationUSA Kazakhstan is looking for two interns to work with a cohort of about 70 motivated high school students seeking admission to Bachelor programs and a cohort of 15 motivated students intended to pursue a Master's program in the United States. Interns will engage with students by leading virtual workshops/presentations on the U.S. admissions process, campus culture, American culture, and their own college experience. Moreover, interns will be involved in the process of application essay proofreading during the application season from October 1 st to January 30 th.
